Wildwood High School

WILDWOOD, FLORIDA

Dedication

To Coach Piggotte

Down through the many ages
Great men have come and gone,
And with these men of fame
There comes another one.
You know of whom I speak;
Everyone must know,
He is a man we all respect,
None other than Coach Joe.
We, the class of fifty-four,
Do proudly dedicate
This yearbook called The Wildcat's Lair
To him whom we appreciate.

Football! basketball!
Baseball and all-
He's made us champs every year;
Look at our trophies in the hall.
He's given us much good advice;
He's helped us when in need.
"Conquer first yourself," he said-
A good motto indeed.
This world is quite a big old place,
But wherever you may go,
Remember that you'll not find one
Quite like our own Coach Joe.

Principal's

Message

Dear Seniors:

As I write this, your senior year is rapidly coming to a close at Wildwood High School.

This book is one of the few material things that will link you with your high school. Keep it, cherish it, look at it often.

Use it as a means of keeping in touch with your youth. As you look through it, remember the good times, the fine experiences, the wonderful people. Recall your hopes, desires and ambitions.

You will soon be taking up the burdens of adulthood, but try to keep an open mind and a willing heart in each life endeavor.

The generations of Americans that have preceded you have left magnificent marks upon the pages of history. Whatever your place is to be in this world, do your job earnestly and do it well.

"Be not like dumb driven cattle,
Be a hero in the strife."

Seniors of '54

A bill to be entitled "The Graduation of Seniors of Nineteen Hundred Fifty Four."

Be it enacted by the Congress of the Senior Class of Wildwood High School,

Section 1. This act may be cited as "Seniors '54".

Section 2. This act is passed to relate the history leading to graduation of the Class of 1954.

In the fall of 1950, sixty-three new students, entered the halls of Wildwood High School.

For the Freshman term in school the class leaders were as follows: Mrs. Annye Piggotte--Sponsor, Madlyn Coupland--President, Floretta Hurst--Vice President, Jim Strickland--Secretary and Treasurer, and Tommy Bright--Reporter.

After the Class had received their initiation they were regarded as members of Wildwood High School.

The Class was honored that year by having Jeanette Clayton elected to the Sweetheart Court.

The executive department for the Sophomore term consisted of Mr. Roger Jacobs--Sponsor, Gilbert Crenshaw--President, Richard Warren--Vice President, Jimmy Strickland--Secretary, Junior Sellers--Treasurer, and Floretta Hurst--Reporter.

The magazine sale was sponsored by the Class to add to the class treasury.

Officers elected for the Junior term were: Joe Grouby--President, Judy Milton--Vice President, Jewel Leigh--Secretary, Madlyn Coupland--Treasurer, and George Maddox--Reporter.

Sponsors were Mr. Roger Jacobs and Mr. Herman Keeney.

Many honors came to the Class that year; Jewell Leigh was elected State Vice-President of Beta Club; Wildwood won the Class A State Champs in Basketball, with Mose Walsh receiving "All State"; Judy Milton, Captain and Deloris Williams Co-Captain of the Basketball Team, received "all-conference"; Madlyn Coupland and Judy Milton were in the Sweetheart Court.

After the Class had presented the Junior Play, "The Perfect Idiot", they gave a Prom in honor of the Seniors.

Those holding offices for the Senior term were: Gilbert Crenshaw--President, Darlene Cason--Vice President, Sonya Rogers, Secretary, Jewell Leigh--Treasurer, and sponsored by Mr. John Behr and Mrs. Jennie Stewart.

The senior play "A Date with Judy" was a big success, as it made it possible for the seniors to put cement benches on the school campus for their children's use.

The Seniors have worked hard in the making of the annual for the '53 and '54 school term.

Through the years of High School the Class number had decreased to forty-five. This is due to Uncle Sam, Matrimony, wanderlust, and other such misfortunes.

Section 3. There is hereby graduated a class to assume the duties of citizenship for which their school life has prepared them.

Section 4. This act shall take effect upon the graduation of the Class, May 28, 1954.

Homecoming

1954 — 1979

Joe Grouby

It is 1979 and the largest Homecoming Dance that Wildwood has ever seen is being held in the gymnasium, begun in 1951 and finished last year.

Being director of the band playing for the dance and a former member of the class, I am in an excellent position to give you a thumbnail sketch of each of the former members of the Class of '54' as each makes his appearance.

First I see Jewell Leigh, Ph.D., and Professor of English at the University of Paris, talking to David Scott. Jewell just completed a book entitled, "A Thousand and One Knock-Knocks," which promises to become a best seller almost over night. David, who is photographer for the Tampa Tribune, won the Pulitzer Prize for his candid shot of Mrs. Jennie Stewart working on this year's annual.

Deloris Williams stopped over on her way to visit England. She has been the talk of athletic circles since she defeated the Russian Women's Wrestling Champion, Nocka Headoff in East Berlin.

Bruce York and Fred Crenshaw all dressed up in the latest western fashions, came tonight with two New York chorus girls. The title "World's Shortest Cowboy" was awarded to Bruce while Fred was winning the World's Championship Rodeo at Madison Square Garden last year.

Shirley and Glen Talbott had to leave the family behind. At last count there was an even dozen.

Jeannette Clayton seems to be having as much fun dancing as ever. Since making a "heat" on Broadway as a French divorcee, she has been swamped with requests for her phone number. Tommy Watson is her partner for this dance. He is noted for a hair-do combining the D.A., Ponytail and Poodle Cut.

Judy Milton just stopped in for a short time on her way to Paris, to assume her duties as secretary to the President of France. Commander Lew Wright and Major Bennie Fore are also in the party going to Europe. Commander Wright is to become Naval attache' in Italy and Major Fore, Military attache' in Germany.

We have four of our girls down from New York, Marlene Hayes, Clementine McClain and Johnnie Lee are secretaries in the United Nations. Naomi Lee is noted for her style of Blues singing in the Latin Quarter. They all seem to be enjoying themselves talking to Ethan Fort, better known as Charlton Grapple, the romantic movie star, and Leland Mercer who recently made his debut in Carnegie Hall as a trumpet soloist.

I just over heard Jack Sands, Dean Davis, and Rudy Geraci talking about the possibility of a snow storm this year ruining their 100,000 acres of watermelons. They decided that if Andrew Nichols keeps burning up the race tracks at Daytona and Sebring there should be an early spring.

Janice Alman is now making her grand entrance with her husband. He owns 65 oil wells in Texas and a fleet of Cadillacs. Janice has finally realized her dream. She also has the largest mink in the Southeast. Ruby Lee Golden just saw Janice and is rushing over to meet her. Ruby has to leave at 9:00 tonight to get to Radio City. She is the star of America's most popular radio show "Ruby's Rantings", broadcast in Spanish, also in English.

Pauline Millican, noted author and woman of letters, will present to Mr. John Behr a copy of his biography, later on tonight. His conducting of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra has brought world acclaim.

Mary Margaret Stafford assumed her mother's place as teacher of the first grade. She also teaches twirling and has made the Wildwood majorettes the best in the state.

Gary Jennings and Bennie Jones furnished all the orange juice from their J & J concentrate Plant. They bought all Bing Crosby's stock in Minute Maid and combined with Snow Crop. Both are worth over a million dollars. Barbara Windham stands close to the punch bowl to see that no pranks are played. Bennie hired her as "official orange juice taster."

Junior Golden was unable to attend. Since winning the title "Most Superlative Loafer" he is trying to live up to it.

Jane Severance and Betty Waldron got a day off in order to come tonight. They work as translators in the Spanish Embassy in Washington. Barbara Weaver and Dorene Smith flew up to bring them back. They are the first women pilots to fly a jet airliner.

Dr. Sonya Rogers medical technician wore her Nobel Prize medal tonight. The award was made for her discovery of super speed Epsom Salts.

Two outstanding athletes are present tonight. Mose Walsh is now pitching for the Yankees and W.D. Worrell plays center for the Los Angeles Rams.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Roesel accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Williams tonight. Edwin hired Charles to be chief veterinarian on his ranch which is twice the size of King Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maddox came tonight with Mr. and Mrs. George Sellers Jr. George is president of General Motors corporation and owns controlling interest in Lloyds of London. Junior is now owner of a chain of hotels in America and Europe. He is also president of the board of directors of the Conrad Hilton Hotel chain in the United States.

The floor show is about to begin and M.C. Gilbert Crenshaw has come on stage. His television show "Meet the People" is very popular and qualifies him as a great Master of Ceremonies.

First on the program is Frankie Boyett, who took the late Hank William's place as one of the foremost folk singers in the U.S. After Frankie will come Darlene Cason, star of many musical plays and motion pictures. She was recently elected by the U.S. Army as "Miss Pin Up".

And now before the night draws to a close I must not neglect to mention two members of our class who are not here. Jimmy Strickland, who started on a world tour two years ago and hasn't made it around yet and Madlyn Coupland, but wait! Here comes Madlyn now. She must have been delayed at one of her United Nations meetings.

Last Will and Testament

Shirley Talbott

We, the senior class of 1954, of Wildwood High School, City of Wildwood, County of Sumter and State of Florida, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, declaring ourselves to be of determined mind and of sound body.

We bequeath to future senior classes our ability to lead the school in fads such as, white bucks, levis, and white T-shirts.

To all classes we bequeath our slightly used chewing gum; namely, to anyone who has brawn and persistence enough to pry it loose from beneath the desks.

To the school we leave eight cement benches. Sit lightly, we want them for our children to use.

To the faculty we leave this delapidated school house and the echoes of the 1954 seniors.

To our sponsors, Mrs. Jennie Stewart and Mr. John Behr, we leave our pleasant memories of their thoughtful attempts to keep us in line and assistance in our many tasks and in times of need.

Edwin Williams leaves his love for coon hunting to Mark Arnold.

Jewell Leigh leaves her "knock-knock" jokes and impersonations to Gloria Shuman.

Tommy Watson wills his "New Style" haircut to George Watson, better start training it now George.

Mary Margaret Stafford bequeaths her love for partying and dancing to Dorothy Williams. Think you can use it, Dorothy?

Deloris Ann Williams leaves her "quiet" personality and athletic ability to Bonnie Sue Wallace. Keep old W. H. S. rolling.

Shirley Talbott wills her ability to hook her man to Annette Rolfe. Good luck Net!

Madiyn Coupland leaves her place as valedictorian with best wishes to Danny Gail McElrath.

George Maddox wills his outstanding basketball playing to Louis Teboe. Please don't beat his record.

Frankie Boyett leaves part of his short curly hair to Jack Owen. Girls really go for it.

Bruce York wills his ambition to become seven feet tall but not so wide to John Ford.

Ethan Fort leaves his good looks to Sam Gaston. Take good care of them.

W. D. Worrell leaves Norma to no one. He'll be back.

To Claudean Fort and Louise Coleman we will our best wishes for the best seats in the senior room.

Mose Walsh leaves his title as the old pro to Hugh Douglas.

Janice Alman wills her ever changing hair-do to Peggy Price.

Joe Grouby leaves his intelligence and stick-to-it-ive-ness to Joe Strubinger, confident that it will be in good hands.

Naomi Lee leaves her love for sports, morning naps, and ability to be an A string guard to Sharon Boen.

Jack Sands leaves his quick temper to Jimmy Towne with hopes that he can control it.

Jimmy Strickland leaves his hard luck of getting hurt during football practice to Joe Mills, hoping he can break the jinx.

Barbara Weaver leaves to the Vocational School students, Mattie Jean Boone, Yvonne Griffin, Deloris Pittman, and Katherine Talbott, her job of keeping the teachers in a hysterical condition. Somebody come to their rescue.

Pauline Millican wills her ability to take shorthand at 200 words a minute to Joy Kelly. It comes in handy.

Barbara Windham wills her title as the Best Looking Senior Girl to Myrtle Altman. It was fun while it lasted.

Charles Roesel leaves his class ring to Kay Jones to replace the one he lost.

Dorene Smith leaves her sweet disposition to June Baker, not that June needs it.

Clementine McClain wills her love for commercial subjects to Gay Phillips.

Judy Milton leaves her name as Most Popular Senior Girl to Roberta Mizell. May this help you win the honor, Roberta.

Gilbert Crenshaw leaves his title as Most Dependable Senior Boy to Penrose Beaumont.

Darlene Cason wills her majorette uniform and baton to Valerie Sparkman. Knowing she will get it anyway.

Jeanette Clayton leaves her talent as a French actress to Reba Tyner.

Ruby Lee Golden leaves her wit and humor to Mary Ann Neuner. Keep them laughing, Mary Ann.

Marlene Hays wills her good study habits to Virginia Coleman.

Johnnie Mae Lee leaves her speed in typing to Geraldine Scott.

Sonya Rogers wills her job as class secretary to Dorothy Harsey. There is plenty of work ahead, Dorothy.

Jane Severance leaves her romantic mood to Nancy Weaver.

Betty Waldron leaves her chair in the band room to Billie Jean Johnson.

The senior Spanish class leave their Spanish books to Harriette Hayward. Done

Fred Crenshaw wills his desire to skip school during hunting season to Richard Stalnaker, hoping he can use it more than Fred did.

David Scott leaves his place on the P. F. A. judging team to Jimmy Williams.

To Mattie Albritton and Lorean Fort we leave our seats in the drug store and all the soda and crackers they want.

Dean Davis wills his quiet and unspoken manner to Kay Alderman.

Bennie Fore and Rudy Geraci will their well kept agriculture notebooks to Clark Caruthers.

Junior Sellars leaves to Howard Hayward his ability to fill the place of someone who dropped out in a play, and help make the play a success.

Gary Jennings wills his position as end on the football team to Ralph Eichelberger.

Bennie Jones leaves his electrical tools to Jimmy Lewis.

Leland Mercer wills his love for music to Robert Meeks.

Junior Golden and Andrew Nichols will their days present in school to Wayne Smith hoping that all three added together will give him a full year's credit.

With these gifts, we give all that remains of our good intentions, revoked senior privileges, and radio that is somewhere on the school campus, to our worthy successors; with this reminder "Of all the sad words of tongue of pen; the saddest are these, it might have been."
